

From River To Rock Record:
The Preservation of Fluvial Sediments and their Subsequent Interpretation

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. LESSONS FROM THE MODERN

Interpretation Of Ancient Fluvial Channel Deposits: Review And Recommendations

Frank G. Ethridge

Architecture And Depositional Style Of Fluvial Systems Before Land Plants: A Comparison Of Precambrian, Early Paleozoic, And Modern River Deposits

Darrel G. F. Long

River Terraces In The Rock Record: An Overlooked Landform In Geological Interpretation?

Stuart G. Archer, Fjalar Reynisson and Anne M. Schwab

2. SHORT TERM: AUTOGENICALLY DOMINATED?

Fluvial Systems And Their Deposits In Hot, Seasonal Semiarid And Subhumid Settings: Modern And Ancient Examples

Christopher R. Fielding, Jonathan P. Allen, Jan Alexander, Martin R. Gibling, Michael C. Rygel, and John H. Calder

Interpreting Fluvial Hydro-Morphology From The Rock Record: Large River Peak Flows Leave No Clear Signature

Suzanne F. Leclair

Pedogenic And Sedimentologic Criteria For Recognition Of Overbank Sub-Environments In A Triassic Anabranching-River Deposit

Parthasarathi Ghosh and Soumen Sarkar

Stratigraphy Of Counter-Point-Bar And Eddy-Accretion Deposits In Low-Energy Meander Belts Of The Peace-Athabasca Delta, Northeast Alberta, Canada

Derald G. Smith, Stephen M. Hubbard, Jason R. Lavigne, Dale A. Leckie, Milovan Fustic

Fluvial Paleotransport Derived From Trough Cross-Bedding: Example From The Lower Clair Group, West Of Shetland, Using Oriented Whole Core Images

Andrew Smalley

Downstream Changes And Associated Fluvial-Aeolian Interactions In An Ancient Terminal Fluvial System: The Permian Organ Rock Formation, SE Utah, USA

Stephen A. Cain And Nigel P. Mountney

3. MEDIUM TERM: COMPLEX INTERACTIONS?

Architecture And Behavior Of Dryland Fluvial Reservoirs, Triassic Skagerrak Formation, Central North Sea

Tom McKie

Avulsion And Its Implications For Fluvial-Deltaic Architecture: Insights From The Holocene Rhine-Meuse Delta

Esther Stouthamer, Kim M. Cohen, and Marc J.P. Gouw

A Tidally Influenced, High-Latitude Coastal-Plain: The Upper Cretaceous (Maastrichtian) Prince Creek Formation, North Slope, Alaska

Peter P. Flaig, Paul J. McCarthy, and Anthony R. Fiorillo

Role Of Scouring And Base-Level Change In Producing Anomalously Thick Fluvial Successions: An Example From The Tana River, Northern Norway

Raymond S. Eilertsen & Geoffrey D. Corner

Depositional Dynamics And Preservation Potential In A Progradational Lacustrine Fluvio-Deltaic Setting: Implications For High Resolution Sequence Stratigraphy (Upper Triassic, NW-China)

Jens Hornung and Matthias Hinderer

Pedogenic And Non-Pedogenic Calcretes In The Devonian Ridgeway Conglomerate Formation Of SW Wales, UK: A Cautionary Tale

Robert D. Hillier, Susan B. Marriott, and Brian P.J. Williams

Alluvial Facies Distributions In Continental Sedimentary Basins – Distributive Fluvial Systems

Gary S. Weissmann, Adrian J. Hartley, Gary J. Nichols, Louis A. Scuderi, Michelle Olson, Holly Buehler and Lauren Massengill

4. LONG TERM: ALLOGENICALLY DOMINATED?

Preservation Of A Long-Lived Fluvial System In A Mountain Chain: The Tagliamento Valley (Southeastern Italian Alps)

Giovanni Monegato And Cristina Stefani

Lateral And Vertical Variability Of Channel Belt Stacking Density As A Function Of Subsidence And Sediment Supply: Field Evidence From The Intramountain Körös Basin, Hungary

Annamária Nádor and Orsolya Sztanó

Deposystems, Paleosols, And Climatic Variability In A Continental System: The Upper Triassic Chinle Formation, Colorado Plateau, U.S.A.

Russell F. Dubiel and Stephen T. Hasiotis

Alluvial Valleys And Alluvial Sequences: Towards A Geomorphic Assessment

Martin R. Gibling, Christopher R. Fielding, Rajiv Sinha
