

6. To meet and communicate with each other, for the purpose of digesting the information acquired, and to mature such plans as they believe will conduce, in practice, to the well-being of the Working Classes.
7. To publish their views and sentiments, in such form and manner as shall best serve to create a moral, reflecting, yet energetic public opinion; so as eventually to lead to a gradual improvement in the condition of the Working Classes, without violence or commotion.
8. To maintain a place where they can associate for mental improvement, and where their brethren from the country can meet with kindred minds, actuated by one great motive—that of benefiting politically, socially, and morally, the useful classes. Though the persons forming this Association will be at all times disposed to co-operate with all those who seek to promote the happiness of the multitude, yet being convinced, from experience, that the division of interests in the various classes, in the present state of things, is too often destructive of that union of sentiment which is essential to the prosecution of any great object, they have resolved to confine their members, as far as practicable, to the Working Classes. But as there are great differences of opinion as to where the line should be drawn which separates the Working Classes from the other portions of society, they leave to the members themselves to determine whether the candidate proposed is eligible to become a member.

QUALIFICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP.—All persons of good moral character among the Industrious Classes are eligible to become members of this Association.

MODE OF ELECTING MEMBERS.—All candidates for admission must be proposed and seconded by members. The proposer must give in the name, residence, and occupation of the person proposed to the Secretary, the Secretary shall submit the same to the Committee, for inquiry respecting the moral character and fitness of the candidates, and resolve whether he shall be admitted or not. The election to be decided by ballot.

HONORARY MEMBERS OF THE WORKING CLASSES.—Working men in different parts of the country may be elected Honorary Members, without payments, who shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Association whenever they come to town.

HONORARY MEMBERS NOT OF THE WORKING CLASSES.—Persons not of the Working Classes, but whom the members believe are sufficiently identified with them, may be elected Honorary Members. They shall be allowed to take part in all debates or discussions, and attend all meetings of the Association, but not to hold any office, or take any part in the management.

PAYMENTS.—Each member shall pay the sum of Twopence of entry-money, and one Halfpenny per week—to be paid monthly, on general meeting nights—towards supporting the establishment. Any member in arrears three months, and not giving a satisfactory excuse, shall have his name erased. Collectors shall be appointed by the Committee to bring in the subscriptions of the members to the general fund; or any five, ten, or more individuals, may appoint one for themselves to collect their subscriptions—all of whom must bring in their books to the Committee at least once every four weeks.
