COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course examines the Jacobite movement in a British and European context from the defeat and exile of James II in 1688 through to last days of Charles Edward Stuart a century later. It will explore the Jacobites in a three kingdoms context: England, Scotland and Ireland and will put events in a wider European context examining power and politics within the courts of Paris and Rome.
INTENDED AIMS AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

Intellectual Skills

By the end of the course students should be able to:

1) Evaluate, challenge and assess established perceptions and sources.
2) Use a wide range of material, visual and written evidence.
3) Display a basic knowledge of European, British and Scottish history during a period of crisis and change.
4) Have a good understanding of historiographical debates.
5) Communicate these understandings in oral and written form.

Attitudinal Skills:

This course is intended to enhance appreciation and awareness of:

1) Scottish history in British and European contexts.
2) Factors which lead to the success and failure of political and dynastic ambitions.
3) The writing of history, historiography and revisionism.
4) A wide variety of perspectives drawn from a wide selection of sources.

Transferable Skills

By the end of the course students should be able to:

1) Listen attentively and take notes effectively
2) Select and read relevant information
3) The ability to identify and extract key arguments from substantial quantities of information
4) Construct coherent arguments in written work and in seminars

Online resources

From the University Library homepage you can access other library catalogues online. You also have access to very valuable databases such as:

- Oxford Dictionary of National Biography (Oxford DNB)
- Early English Books Online (EEBO)
- Eighteenth Century Commentaries Online (ECCO)
- Colonial State Papers

Use these to your full advantage.

Original Sources can also be found through www.archive.org.

Other secondary sources may be very useful but remember to be critical of what you use on the web – not all of it is accurate, authentic or helpful!

ASSESSMENT

Level 3: 1st Attempt: 1 three hour written examination (50%)

Continuous Assessment:

1000 word book review (10 %).
3000 word essay (40%)

Level 3 2nd Attempt: 100% written examination.

For written assessments feedback will be provided in writing with departmental marking sheets and written comments throughout the piece of work. There will also be an informal one to one session for verbal feedback.

Feedback will normally be provided within a maximum of three working weeks (excluding vacation periods) following the deadline for submission of the assessment.

Click to view the University Level Descriptors (ANNEX A).
Click to view the University Assessment Scale Band Descriptors (ANNEX B).

PLEASE NOTE: In order to pass a course on the first attempt, a student must attain a Common Grading Scale (CGS) mark of at least E3 on each element of course assessment. Failure to do so will result in a grade of no greater than CGS E1 for the course as a whole.
ESSAYS
Please do not hesitate to approach the course co-ordinator to discuss possible essay titles. Your essay title must be agreed with the course co-ordinator by FRIDAY 23 OCTOBER 2015. Essays should be 3000 words long, including quotations and footnotes; students should note that they will be penalised for work which is either too long or too short. ESSAY IS DUE 12 NOON ON THURSDAY 19 NOVEMBER 2015.

BOOK REVIEW
Book Reviews should be no more than 1000 words long. Book reviews should identify the main arguments within the work and outline how the book contributes to the knowledge of the subject area, for example, a new angle, new interpretation or new evidence. Further guidance on the book review will be given in class. Please discuss your choice for review with the course co-ordinator by FRIDAY 9 OCTOBER 2015 and submit the assignment by 12 NOON ON THURSDAY 22 OCTOBER 2015.

ASSESSMENT DEADLINES
BOOK REVIEW - 12 NOON THURSDAY 22 OCTOBER 2015.

ESSAY – 12 NOON THURSDAY 19 NOVEMBER 2015.

SUBMISSION ARRANGEMENTS

The Department requires ONE official electronic copy submitted by the deadline plus ONE paper copy of all assignments with the TurnitinUK receipt, attached as follows:

Electronic Copy: One copy submitted through Turnitin via MyAberdeen.
Hard Copy: One hard copy with the Turnitin receipt attached together with an Assessment cover sheet, typed and double spaced – this copy should have your ID number CLEARLY written on the cover sheet, with NO name and NO signature but EVERYTHING ELSE filled in – and should be delivered to the History Department [Drop-off boxes located in CB008, 50-52 College Bounds].

Please note: Failure to submit both an electronic copy to TurnitinUK, and an identical paper copy, with the digital receipt attached, will result in a deduction of marks. Failure to submit to TurnitinUK will result in a zero mark.

EXAMINATION
The three hour exam will be based around themes discussed in the seminars and the examination paper will consist of 10 questions of which two must be answered. General exam guidance is found in the Student Handbook. For this course there are no past papers but a ‘mock’ paper will be distributed in class towards the end of the course.

Past exam papers can be viewed at http://www.abdn.ac.uk/library/learning-and-teaching/for-students/exam-papers/.
