

Aberdeen Employability Boost Award

“The Aberdeen Employability Boost Award effectively strengthened my skills and knowledge linked to employability, thereby inspiring personal as well as professional development in order to achieve career aspirations.”

Nadine Aschauer, 4th year, BSc Plant and Soil Science

“The Aberdeen Employability Boost Award has equipped me with a series of useful skills, helping me keep these unusual lockdown times both productive and worthwhile.”

Max Charles Vallarino, 3rd year, MSci Biological Sciences

“I developed the confidence and self-awareness that are necessary to approach the job market during these challenging times.”

Ahmed Kombar, 2nd year, MA Accountancy and Finance

“I have been able to come up with long-term goals to maximise my employability for what I hope will be my future career.”

Aisling Lindsay, 1st year, MA Politics and International Relations

“The gradation of points was a motivation for me. I attained a gold status quickly whilst not missing out on the essentials of the programme which would enhance my employability.”

Chimeze Akuagwuagwu, MSc Global Health and Management

“I have benefitted from participating because I now feel ready to take the next step in my career and I am excited about future possibilities that are available to me.”

James Helingoe, Graduate, MA Geography and History

“I gained a deeper understanding of myself, further developed my CV and application form writing skills, discovered resources to help decide my future, and found motivation to not give up.”

Shannon Stevenson, Graduate, BMus Community Music

“The Award gave me a vision and a plan on how to further enrich my potential.”

Monika Dimitrova, 2nd year, MA Business Management and Economics.
