

PUBLIC & PATIENT REPRESENTATIVES

We are developing a group for members of the public, patients and their carers who are interested in the health and wellbeing of older people to promote research which can improve the quality of life of older persons.

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for persons aged 65 years and older with an interest in the health of older people, and those who provide formal or informal care/support to older persons.

Participants must be able to attend group meetings at the Foresterhill site or participate by phone or email.

What can participation achieve?

Your participation can shape research to ensure it is relevant, important, accessible and acceptable to patients.

This can:

- Improve the care of older persons
- Improve the health and wellbeing of older people and their carers

What would I do?

- Discuss issues important to you about health and ageing
- Suggest new topics that you think important for research
- Help the design of research projects
- Learn about the research process
- Develop new skills and knowledge
