Summary of eligibility

1. This prize is open to all staff and postgraduate research students currently affiliated with the University of Aberdeen.
2. Applications must demonstrate that their team's research has influenced their field of research.
3. Only one entry per team is allowed.
4. Research which has been presented or published within the last 36 months (i.e. since February 2016) is eligible for submission.

Summary of terms

1. Nominations must be made using the form provided. Nominations can be made by Supervisors, Directors of Research or Heads of School. Teams can self-nominate, and PIs can nominate on behalf of their teams. Researchers may only be nominated once for individual awards but may be nominated for both individual and team awards.
2. At least one letter of support from an external source explaining the significance of your research to your field must be included with the application.
3. Nominations for the 2019 prize must be received by 5 pm on 19th April 2019.
4. The decision of the judging panel is final.
5. Short-listed applicants will be informed by 10th May 2019.
6. The funds provided for development activities are intended for use by the applicants on direct costs to further their research.
7. An early career researcher is defined as a researcher who has less than four years' academic research experience (or full-time equivalent) following the completion of their PhD, or is of equivalent professional standing.
