

The Second Postgraduate Law Conference of the Centre for Private International Law

Monday 6 May 2024

from 9.00 – 17.00

Online venue

1495

UNIVERSITY OF ABERDEEN

OILTHIGH OBAR DHEATHAIN

Panel 1: International Family Law

Time: 9.00 – 11.00

Moderators: Prof. Katarina Trimmings and Mr Le Xuan Tung

Expert scholars: Prof. Mary Keyes, Griffith University (Australia) and Prof. Sharon Shakargy, Hebrew University of Jerusalem (Israel)

Pritam Kumar Ghosh: "The Indian legal framework governing inter-country parental child removal and retention: need for reforms"

Thi Thu Ngan Tran: "Divorce settlement involving foreign elements in Vietnam regarding relevant treaties and some valuable insights for Vietnam"

Zixuan Yang: "Rethink the relations between culture and autonomy in cross-border marriage and divorce cases"

Helga Luku: "Continuity of civil status for mobile citizens in a diverse European Union: balancing freedom of movement, fundamental rights and national identity"

Panel 2: AI and Cross-Border Legal Issues

Time: 9am-11am (UK time)

Moderators: Dr Patricia Zivkovic and Dr Michiel Poesen

Expert scholars: Dr Benedetta Capiello, University of Milan, Italy; and Dr Kirsten Henckel, University of Groningen, Netherlands

Dr. Gizem Halis Kasap: "Navigating the digital frontier: AI, cross-border legal challenges, and privacy torts in public interest litigation"

Bader Alnoaimi: "Data sovereignty, territoriality, and regulatory contestations: A case study on Bahrain's cloud data governance framework"

Šejla Gutić & Ajla Serdarević: "Artificial intelligence in commercial arbitration: Navigating emerging challenges and enforceability of awards"

Pilar Vargas Martínez: "Data subjects access rights in the metaverse: Dynamic interplay of regulatory frameworks"

Panel 3: International Civil and Commercial

Time: 12pm-2pm (UK time)

Moderators: Dr Nevena Jevremovic

Expert scholars: Dr Lorna Gillies, Edinburgh Napier University, UK; and Dr Michiel Poesen (University of Aberdeen)

Edoardo Piermattei: "The crypto assets' applicable law in private international context: A challenge ahead"

Carlotta Maresc: "Fintech and international disputes resolution: Pure economic loss and DLT transactions"

Suvethan Ganapathy Sundaralingam: "Navigating the limits: Excess of mandate and the authority of an arbitrator acting as amiable compositeu"

Michal Karolak: "Public law taboo' - a sacred axiom, forgotten dogma or obsolete theory?"

Panel 4: Private International Law and Human Rights

Time: 3pm-5pm (UK time)

Moderators: Professor Justin Borg-Barthet & Dr Francesca Farrington

Expert scholars: Professor Veronica Ruiz Abou-Nigm, University of Edinburgh, UK; and Professor Geert Van Calster, KU Leuven, Belgium

Darmashakthini Arujunan: "Civil liability of lead firms for inadequate governance of their value chains: A Private International Law perspective"

Victor Hugo Alcalde do Nascimento: "Ethical transnational enterprises: Between an oximoron or an attainable challenge to private international law"

Marco Pasqua: "Jurisdiction in international sanctions-affected cases: The European Union perspective in light of Russian amendments"

Merve Sizer: "Is access to justice possible in Türkiye within the Turkish Private International Law framework, in light of the Iliç mining accident?"