QG HCOL044 [https://www.abdn.ac.uk/library/documents/guides/hcol/qghcol044.pdf]

Introduction
Many individuals and institutions have deposited their papers with the University; as a result it has acquired an unrivalled collection of material not solely relating to the history and culture of the north-east of Scotland but also of national and international importance.

Please note that Aberdeen city boundaries have changed over time and the parishes of Peterculter, Dyce, Newhills and the Bridge of Don area of Old Machar parish were incorporated into the City of Aberdeen District in 1974 and thence into Aberdeen City in 1996. For the purposes of this factsheet these parishes will be included here as formerly part of Aberdeenshire.

Please also note that this factsheet should be consulted in conjunction with the factsheets QG HCOL043: Resources relating to Aberdeen City in Special Collections, QG HCOL048: Resources relating to Old Aberdeen in Special Collections, QG HCOL054: Map and plan resources in Special Collections and QG HCOL010: Photographic resources in Special Collections.

Personal papers

For papers relating to individuals from Aberdeen see the factsheet QG HCOL030: Personal papers in Special Collections.

Some collections are particularly useful for local history research:

Kelly, William, architect and antiquarian: papers, 1805 – 1944 (MS 2390 and MS 3859).

Simpson, William Douglas, historian and archaeologist, papers including collection of archaeological, monumental and architectural plans, 19th century – 20th century (MS 2729, MS 2818 and MS 3759).

Other relevant collections

Scottish Catholic Archives, Historic Archives

The Historic Archives of the Scottish Catholic Archives predominantly relate to the Catholic Church from the 12th century prior to the restoration of the Scottish Catholic Hierarchy in 1878. The collection contains material of regional, national and international significance and provides evidence of the survival of Catholicism both in Scotland and abroad through the archives of its missions, seminaries and colleges. There are also extensive collections relating to prominent Catholic families many in the north-east of Scotland.

See main website portal: www.abdn.ac.uk/library/about/special/scottish-catholic-archives/

NHS Grampian Archives

The archive dates from the founding of Aberdeen Infirmary in 1739 and contains substantial material relating to hospital provision, notably general and specialist hospitals, cottage hospitals and asylums across Aberdeenshire. www.abdn.ac.uk/library/about/special/nhs-grampian-archives/

Medico-Chirurgical Society

The Aberdeen Medico-Chirurgical Society was founded in 1789 in response to the perceived lack of medical teaching offered by both King’s and Marischal Colleges. Its members contributed to the development of medical teaching and practice in Aberdeen and beyond. For more information see the website but please note that although the catalogue is available via the University, the papers are held by the Medico-Chirurgical Society: www.abdn.ac.uk/library/about/special/projects/aberdeen-medico-chirurgical/

Printed collections

The Local Collection of printed material geographically speaking covers the north-east corner of Scotland and is available to consult on open-access in our Reading Room. It contains local area histories, plans and maps and reports of local institutions such as publications by the Buchan Field Club and local schools. Also in The Local Collection you will find a number of local newspapers.

For more information on printed collections relevant to the local area see the factsheet QG HCOL028: Paper manufacturing, printing and publishing resources in Special Collections.
Access

Materials are available upon request for consultation in the Reading Room. Please search our online catalogues to identify individual items: www.abdn.ac.uk/library/about/special/search-catalogues/
