Introduction
Many individuals and institutions have deposited their papers with the University; as a result it has acquired an unrivalled collection of material not solely relating to the history and culture of the north-east of Scotland but also of national and international importance.

The parishes included are: Arbuthnott, Banchory-Devenick, Banchory-Ternan, Benholm, Bervie, Dunnottar, Durras, Fetterscairn, Fettersesso, Fordoun, Garvock, Glenbervie, Kinneff, Laurencekirk, Maryculter, Markykirk, Nigg, St Cyrus and Strachan.

Please note that this factsheet should be consulted in conjunction with the other factsheets relating to the north of Scotland, and also QG HCOL054: Map and plan resources in Special Collections and QG HCOL010: Photographic resources in Special Collections.

Business papers
There is much relevant material across collections of solicitors and surveyors. For example:

Davidson and Garden, advocates, Aberdeen: 14th century – 20th century. This extensive collection contains records of some 200 families, estates, businesses, trusts and other organisations which the firm represented: including Alexander Thomson of Banchory, the Burnett-Ramsay family of Banchory and Portlethen estate (MS 2769 and MS 3744).

Ledingham Chalmers, solicitors: 18th century – 20th century. Includes papers from various families and estates such as Davidson/Douglas of Inchmarlo and Burnett of Leys (MS 3257, MS 3277, MS 3394, MS 3662, MS 3665 and MS 3713).

F. A. MacDonald and Partners, engineers and surveyors, Aberdeen (incorporating Walker & Duncan, Aberdeen): 18th century – 20th century (papers MS 2626 and maps and plans MS 3860).

Personal papers
For papers relating to individuals see the factsheet QG HCOL030: Personal papers in Special Collections.

Some collections are particularly useful for local history research:

Simpson, William Douglas, historian and archaeologist, papers including collection of archaeological, monumental and architectural plans, 19th century – 20th century (MS 2729, MS 2818 and MS 3759).

Kincardineshire legal papers: 1530 – 1809 (MS 2606).

Other relevant collections
Scottish Catholic Archives
There are numerous sources within the records of the Scottish Catholic Church. This extensive collection relates to the Catholic Church from the 12th century prior to the restoration of the Scottish Catholic Hierarchy in 1878. The collection contains material of regional, national and international significance and provides evidence of the survival of Catholicism both in Scotland and abroad through the archives of its missions, seminaries and colleges.

There are also extensive collections relating to prominent Catholic families many in the north of Scotland. Relevant material include the records relating to Blairs College in Kincardineshire:

NHS Grampian Archives
The archive dates from the founding of Aberdeen Infirmary in 1739 and contains substantial material relating to hospital provision, notably general and specialist hospitals, cottage hospitals and asylums. Relevant collections include Arduthie Hospital Stonehaven, Glen O’Dee Banchory, James Mowat Nursing Home and Woodcot Hospital Stonehaven, Executive Council for the Counties of Aberdeen and Kincardine, Kincardine and Deeside Local Health Council, Kincardineshire Hospitals Board of Management and Kincardineshire Insurance Committee:

Medico-Chirurgical Society
The Aberdeen Medico-Chirurgical Society was founded in 1789 in response to the perceived lack of medical teaching offered by both King’s and Marischal Colleges. Its members contributed to the development of medical teaching and practice in Aberdeen and beyond in profound ways. For more information see the website but please note that although the catalogue is available via the University, the papers are held by the Medico-Chirurgical Society.

Printed collections
The Local Collection of printed material geographically speaking covers the north-east corner of Scotland and is available to consult on open-access in our Reading Room. It contains local area histories, plans and maps and reports of local institutions. Also in the Local Collection you will find a number of local newspapers.

For more information on printed collections relevant to the local area see the factsheet QG HCOL028: Paper manufacturing, printing and publishing resources in Special Collections.

Access
Materials are available, upon request, for consultation in the Reading Room. Please search our online catalogues to identify individual items.
