

USING THE BIBLE IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

FORNIGHTLY SEMINARS | WEDNESDAYS 1500-1630 UK TIME | MS TEAMS

This semester's seminars are considering how people use the bible in practical or contextual theology. Each fortnight there is an article to read in advance, and it would be good if you could also read the Bible passage used. Volunteers to present any of the seminars would be welcome. Any questions please contact emma.percy@abdn.ac.uk.

01
OCTOBER

'Action is the Life of A'll: The bible and Practical Theology

Christopher Rowland and Zoe Bennett

15
OCTOBER

When Did We See You Naked?: Jesus as a Victim of Sexual Abuse - Introduction

Jayme R. Reaves and David Tombs

Prof Tombs will be joining us in Aberdeen, and the seminar will be hybrid on Teams and in HMF1

29
OCTOBER

Smart Syrophoenician Woman: A Dalit Feminist Reading of Mark 7:24-31

Surekha Nelavala

05
NOVEMBER

The Visit: A Theological Reflection on a Justice-Seeking Practice Addressing a Wicked Problem

Helen Cameron

Luke 19:1-9

19
NOVEMBER

If I Confess with My Mouth: Boundary Markers, Conversion Narratives and Autistic Belief Practices

Claire Williams and Helena Cundill

Dr Williams and Dr Cundill will join us online

03
DECEMBER

The Body is (Not Quite) One

Rachel Muers

1 Corinthians 12:12-17