

Wednesday 22nd April

Best Abstract Prize Presentations (11:50 – 12:50)

Presentation time: 11:50 – 12:05
Location: Plenary Hall D

Adverse childhood experiences and the development of chronic pain: A structured life course modelling approach in the Avon Longitudinal Study of Parents and Children

Dr Ross MacDonald

This presentation will also be available as part of a guided poster walk session:

Guided Poster Walk: Group A

Session time: 15:30 – 16:30
Location: Studio 1

Thursday 23rd April

Parallel Session C2

Session time: 11:00 – 12:20
Location: Parallel Room 1

Mechanistic and clinical predictors of persistent post-operative opioid use - Insights from the PANDOS Study and beyond

Prof Patrice Forget

Parallel Session D3

Session time: 13:40 – 15:00
Location: Parallel Room 2

The relationship between early life adversity on chronic pain in adulthood: exposures, timing and outcome

Prof Gary Macfarlane

Posters

Available throughout the conference
Location: Studio 1

Adverse childhood experiences and the development of chronic pain: A structured life course modelling approach in the Avon Longitudinal Study of Parents and Children

Dr Ross MacDonald

COMP³: reaching consensus on how to measure chronic pain prevalence in populations

Dr David Watkin

Epidemiology Group

 <https://bit.ly/linkedin-aberdeenepi>

 <https://www.abdn.ac.uk/epidemiology>

UNIVERSITY OF ABERDEEN
EPIDEMIOLOGY
CELEBRATING 20 YEARS
2005 - 2025

British Pain Society
59th Annual Scientific Meeting

21 – 23 April, Harrogate, UK

