

WORKSHOP 1:
IMPLICATIONS OF ELECTRONIC TRADE DOCUMENTS LAW REFORM FOR SCOTLAND
29 February 2024, University of Aberdeen

This project is generously funded by the Royal Society of Edinburgh (RSE)

PROGRAMME

9.45-9.55- Registration and refreshments

Welcome and opening remarks (9.55-10.00)

Dr Burcu Yüksel Ripley, University of Aberdeen

Panel 1: Overview of Electronic Trade Documents Law Reform (10.00-12.00)

Chair: Dr Lorna Gillies, Edinburgh Napier University

- Luci Carey, University of Aberdeen (10.00-10.30): Setting the Scene
- Prof Sarah Green, Law Commission of England and Wales (10.30-11.00): ETDA 2023
- Prof Andrew Steven, University of Edinburgh (11.00-11.30): Scottish perspectives on the ETDA 2023 and the inter-relationship with the Moveable Transactions (Scotland) Act 2023

Round table discussion (11.30-12.00)

Lunch break (12.00-13.00)

Panel 2: Legal Application of ETDA 2023 and Suggestions for Scotland for the Future (13.00-14.30)

Chair: Fiona Henderson, CMS

- Dr Simone Lamont-Black, University of Edinburgh (13.00-13.20): Shipping/Transport
- Dr Livashnee Naidoo, University of Glasgow (13.20-13.40): Insurance
- Geoffrey Wynne, Sullivan & Worcester UK LLP (13.40-14:00): Trade Finance

Round table discussion (14.00-14.30)

Refreshment break (14.30-15.00)

Panel 3: Industry Perspectives on the Electronic Trade Documents Law Reform and Suggestions for Scotland for the Future (15.00-16.30)

Chair: Dr Alisdair MacPherson, University of Aberdeen

- Grant Hunter, BIMCO (15.00-15.20): Perspectives from Shipping
- Jon Boran, Lloyds Bank (15.20-15.40): Perspectives from Banking
- Kevin Shakespeare, Institute of Export & International Trade (15.40-16.00): Perspectives from Trade

Round table discussion (16.00-16.30)

Concluding remarks (16.30-16.45)

Luci Carey, University of Aberdeen