

Project SEARCH

Case Study

Ryley Stretton has strong aspirations for a career in the Bakery industry and connected with Project SEARCH University of Aberdeen in July 2025 for support to enable and empower him to reach his goal. During Ryley's first internship (September to December 2025) with the NHS Grampian Kitchen Team at ARI, he has gained meaningful work experience in a busy hospital kitchen. Ryley's hard work, commitment and dedication to the programme and his internship have enabled him to secure the offer of Bank shifts.

