The deadline for applications is 12:00 on the first Wednesday of the month.

SERB aims to review up to 6 applications per month however this may be reduced when we don't have enough members. Changes in capacity will be advertised through the School news channels.

Applications are taken on a first come first served basis with the excess being held over until the following month. Incomplete submissions will be returned to applicants and not put forward for review. We recommend that you submit your application through Worktribe a minimum of 3 months before your study is due to start.
