

Wuhan International Summer Programme

WUHAN UNIVERSITY, CHINA
6 – 20 SEPTEMBER 2025

A two-week language and culture programme with scholarship funded places available.

Experience the vibrant life in the city of Wuhan with its renowned university and deepen your Chinese language skills with this summer school opportunity.

You will attend Chinese language courses in the mornings, and in the afternoons enjoy cultural excursions and workshops. A weekend excursion trip is also included.

Wuhan International Summer Programme

WUHAN UNIVERSITY, CHINA
6 – 20 SEPTEMBER 2025

Eligibility

Applications for this funded summer school opportunity are open to all students who meet the following requirements:

- Currently enrolled at the University of Aberdeen or the Confucius Institute.
- Hold a HSK certificate, any level, not more than two years old, or have sat an HSK test before September 2025.
- 18–30 years old and must not hold Chinese citizenship or be a native Chinese speaker.
- Not have previously participated in Chinese Bridge summer camp programmes in China.

Scholarship details

Costs covered by Wuhan University:

Registration fees, tuition fees, on-campus accommodation (mostly in double rooms), costs for excursions and cultural activities.

Costs covered by students:

Return travel to China, visa application fee, meals and some extra optional activities or personal spending. The University of Aberdeen has travel insurance for students studying abroad, however, students may also wish to consider personal insurance.

How to apply

Email your CV and cover letter to confucius@abdn.ac.uk no later than 1st May 2025. The cover letter should include your date of birth, passport number, HSK certificate details or plans to sit HSK, and the reason you would like to participate in this programme.