Introduction

MyTimetable provides a number of features for the management of tutorial, practical and lab sessions for both students, academics and administrators. From a student perspective, they can sign up to their sessions, obtain a personal timetable and subscribe to it on a compatible device (e.g. smart phone, tablet or Outlook). Where they have been associated with their course, academics can also obtain a personal timetable. Administrators can manage the availability of sessions, the number of places available, produce registers and record & report on attendance.

Accessing MyTimetable

MyTimetable can be accessed both on and off campus using most standards compliant web browsers such as:

- Microsoft Internet Explorer (version 9 and higher)
- Microsoft Edge
- Mozilla Firefox
- Google Chrome
- Apple Safari

To view reports Adobe Acrobat Reader and/or Microsoft Excel 2007 (or higher) are required.

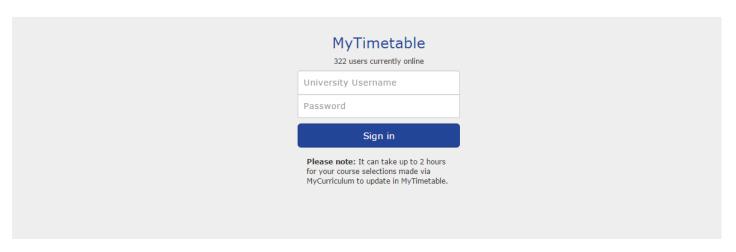

All features, with the exception of class selection, can be used on modern mobile devices (tablets and smart phones).

The system is available at http://www.abdn.ac.uk/mytimetable
