Develop Skills and Attributes

The co-curriculum offers you a chance to maximise your employability by developing your skills and Aberdeen Graduate Attributes while participating in activities outside your courses. There is a wide variety of co-curricular activities that you can get involved in. The links in the boxes below will enable you to find out more. For a brief overview of co-curricular activities with details of eligibility and application timescales, click on the link below.

- 2016/17 Co-Curricular Opportunities

Selected co-curricular activities are also recorded on your Enhanced Transcript which is a formal University document.

You will receive it when you finish your studies to supplement your degree certificate. The Enhanced Transcript can help you to identify and articulate your skills and attributes for recruiters. Watch the video to find out more.
