

Many other songs were sung, and toasts toasted, but as the evening advanced the orators began to speak in dozens at once, and as no reporter is able to attend to more than six persons, or "one boat's crew," at a time, we are unable to favour the public with the harangues. It must suffice us to say, that a more spirited and spirit-stirring assemblage has never been convened since the passing of the great Reform Bill.

---

DAVIDSON & CO. PRINTERS.