

ESSAY

ON THE

CONDITION OF THE AGRICULTURAL POPULATION,

AND

THE BEST MEANS OF AMELIORATING THEIR STATE,
MORALLY AND SOCIALLY:

BEING

ONE OF THE UNSUCCESSFUL ESSAYS LODGED IN COMPETITION FOR THE HONOURABLE THE LORD HADDO'S PRIZE ON THE SUBJECT.

BY

GEORGE MARR, A.M.

FARMER, CAIRNBROGIE, TARVES; AND A MEMBER OF THE ROYAL
NORTHERN AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.

"Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others "

PHIL. ii. 4.

ABERDEEN:

JOHN SMITH, 50, UNION STREET.

1858.