WORKING-MAN'S NEWSPAPER.

No. 1.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1873.

PRICE ONE PENNY.

JAMES M'DONALD,

JAMES M'DONALD,

THE only thorough Practical TOBACCONIST in the City, returns his thanks to his Customers, for their support during the nine years he has been in Business in Aberdeen.

During the time J. M. has been in Business, he has refrained from Advertising, having no wish or necessity to imitate the Quacks in the Trade, who have the imputence to Advertise a Reduction in Price, "singular, as may appear, in the face of a rising market." J. M. believes, that after twenty-four years as a working Tobacconist, he is capable of giving greater satisfaction to his Customers and the Public, than the pretenders in the Trade, whose only knowledge of Tobacco is its name.

Working-men can be supplied with a Pure TOBACCO of any description, of his own Manufacturing, warranted free from adulteration.

J. M. would also inform his Customers and the Public, that from his long experience in London as a Cigar-sorter, he is the only one in the Trade in Aberdeen, who is capable of arranging Cigars as to price and quality.

Gentlemen entrusting him with Orders for CIGARS, may feel assured they will receive the article they require, at a Price that should be paid for it.

PIPES, POUCHES, and every article connected with the Trade, at a Tradesman's fair Profit; making no pretension to sacrifice himself or his Creditors, for the benefit of the Public, believing that all such pretensions are merely impudent attempts to do the Public, which, in most instances, does the Creditors.

JAMES M'DONAND,
THE WORKING MAN'S TOBACCONIST,
15 UNION BUILDINGS,
Opposite Broad Street.

BOOTS! BOOTS!! BOOTS!!! FOR THE WINTER TRADE.

THOUSANDS OF PAIRS TO SELECT FROM, AT McDONALD'S

28 GALLOWGATE, AND 39 QUEEN STREET.

IN announcing the completion of arrangements for the Season's Trade, it has been found necessary, from the experience of previous years, to make their preparations on a much larger scale, so as to be able in a thorough degree to meet the great and numerous requirements of an extensive and increasing business. At no previous time has the necessity for this been greater felt than in the Winter of last year, when in many classes of Goods (but more particularly in Men's and Boys' Stout. Ironed Boots) the demand was far in excess of the supply. The steps taken to meet a similar contingency this year, by more than doubling the orders and Contracts for these and many other classes of Goods, will no doubt meet with a gratifying result. The enormous number of pairs (upwards of 5000) taken to stock for the present season, being all manufactured to special contract by the best Scotch and English Houses in the Trade, are of a quality much superior to that which is generally met with. The subjoined short list gives but the merest idea of the great variety and assortment, and all combining genuine excellence, with a really low price, are in the true sense of the word Cheap:—

250 Pairs Ladies' Elastic-side BOOTS, at 3s 6d

A Special Lot of Dick's Gutta Percha BOOTS (1800 Pairs), fresh and in good order, at old prices. The excellent quality of these Goods are well known. The Public are cautioned against a rubbishy imitation of this Boot (of the same colour as an Army Blucher) presently in the market. From those who have not yet patronised these Establishments, a trial is respectfully solicited, feeling assured that the result will be a continuation of their patronage. Repairs done in Leather and Gutta Percha. All work done guaranteed. Boots Regussatted for Is. To prevent misleading and after-regret, please note the Address carefully— MCDONALD'S, 28 GALLOWGATE,
