

7th September.—The Outer Marches perambulated by the Town Council and Citizens.

8th October.—Foundation Stone of the New Market Buildings laid by the Lord Provost.

19th November.—Opening of the Female Orphan Asylum in Albyn Place. Erected and endowed by Mrs. Elmslie, of Woodcote Place, Epsom.

1841.

11th January.—The Council sanction the introduction of gas-light into St. Clement's Parish Church. [One of the brass chandeliers which formerly hung in the East Church was, at the same time, fitted up with scroll branches, and otherwise adapted for gas-light, and presented to St. Clement's Church by Provost Blaikie. It now forms the centre gasalier.]

28th June.—Foundation Stone of the widening of the Bridge of Dee laid by the Lord Provost.

6th October.—Foundation Stone of the Asylum for the Blind, Huntly Street, laid by the Lord Provost.

29th October.—New Public Schools in Little Belmont Street formally opened.

24th November.—Grand banquet and display of fireworks in honour of the birth of the Prince of Wales.

1842.

2nd February.—The Cross and plainstones ordered to be removed to their present site at the east end of Castle Street.

28th March.—Motion for the admission of the public to the meetings of Council defeated by 12 to 6.

29th April.—New Market Buildings publicly opened by a musical promenade and concert.

14th May.—Keystone of the last arch in the widening of Bridge of Dee driven by the Lord Provost.