Tunney.

Dear Mr Leatham

Postponed sending p.o. with intention of writing you — but alas! too often when I do read things get "snowed under".
In any case — what could I have said? You and I are at opposite poles in most things; we are even "Socialists" for diametrically opposed reasons. But I read all your pamphlets with interest, and there are others I want you to get time to send you a note of the titles. My philosophy holds that there are two irreconcilably opposed types of mind — or principles — ~~both~~ which are indispensable to each other — and that whoever would try to reconcile them or
