

THE WANTS OF MODERN WOMEN.

Prominent Public Man—"Dear me, dear me! What will they want next? They demand votes, seats on the School Board, representation on the Technical College Committee, and—and—well, what would you like, my dear?"

Young Lady—"Oh, I am old-fashioned enough to be content if I get a good husband."

Public Man—"Well, I am glad there is one sensible woman left, and I have no doubt you will very soon get a good husband."
