

A WIN FOR THE WOMEN SUFFRAGISTS.

The Male Students Fail to "Pass."

"PLOUGHED."

PASSED—MUCH DISTINCTION.

A number of male students of the Aberdeen University resolved to hold high revel at the Women's Suffrage demonstration in the Music Hall on Thursday evening, but were baulked by the adroit tactics of the promoters of the meeting. The ladies undoubtedly had the better of matters. Fancy a Woman Suffragist allowing herself to be kept out of a meeting she was determined to attend! Yet it seemed to pass the wit of the mere man to gain access to the Music Hall, and the students, much to their chagrin, were left outside lamenting. The women scored.
