

Supplementary Regulations for the Degree of Bachelor of Laws (LLB)

1. The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LLB) may be conferred in one of two forms: either as the Degree of LLB or as the Degree of LLB with Honours. The degree shall not be conferred honoris causa tantum. The Degree of LLB may be awarded with Commendation or Distinction.
2. Subject to the provisions of Regulations 3 to 5 every candidate for the Degree of LLB must obtain a minimum of 360 credit points. Candidates first enrolled during or after 2003/2004 must obtain a minimum of 60 credit points at level 3 or above in LS courses. Every candidate must be in attendance on classes for the following minimum periods, unless granted exemption by the Senatus Academicus, before applying for the degree. Candidates already in possession of a degree before registering for the LLB are normally granted such exemption.
  - (i) Candidates for the degree by full-time study only: not less than three sessions.
  - (ii) Candidates for the degree by part-time study only: not less than five sessions.
  - (iii) Candidates for the degree by a combination of both part-time and full-time study: such period as may be determined in individual cases by the Senatus Academicus. For the purpose of this Regulation two half-sessions of part-time study shall be counted as the equivalent of one half-session of full-time study.
3. Every candidate must obtain at least 240 credit points from the courses which are given in Annex A.
4. Candidates must include in their curriculum and complete the prescribed degree assessment in the courses 1 to 9 as listed in Annex A.
5. The minimum 360 credit points required for the award of the Degree must not include credit points from the courses LS1525 Business Law 1: Commercial Law and LS2019 Business Law 2: Organisations
6. Candidates who have fulfilled the requirements of Regulations 2 to 5 and of the General Degree Regulations shall be entitled to apply for the Degree of LLB. Any such candidates for the degree who have successfully completed the courses detailed in the relevant section of Annex B will be entitled to have their degree certificate endorsed LLB with Options in French Language, LLB with Options in Gaelic Language, LLB with Options in German Language, LLB with Options in Spanish Language, LLB with Options in Economics, LLB with Options in Accountancy, LLB with Options in Management Studies, or LLB with Options in Music, as appropriate.
7. On application to the Head of French, Gaelic, German or Hispanic Studies (as appropriate) a candidate who is a native speaker of the relevant language may be exempted from attendance at and assessment in any of the courses mentioned in Annex B 3, 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13, 14. Notwithstanding such an exemption, the candidate cannot count the credit points attaching to the exempted courses for the purposes of satisfying Regulations 2 and 8.

REGULATIONS FOR AWARD OF THE DEGREE WITH HONOURS

8. Candidates for the Degree of LLB with Honours, must obtain at least 480 credit points, not fewer than 240 of which must be from the courses listed in Annex A, and must comply with the provisions of Regulation 4. Every candidate must be in attendance on classes for four sessions of full-time study or the equivalent, unless granted exemption by the Senatus Academicus, before commencing the Honours programme.
9. Candidates must attend courses of instruction in an Honours programme comprising a dissertation (LS 4025) and any six of the courses offered for the Degree of LLB with Honours, as specified in Annex E. One of these six courses may be replaced by a Level 4 course from another School, with the permission of the Senatus Academicus.
10. Candidates shall not normally be admitted to the Honours programme unless they have previously obtained 240 credit points over a maximum of 2 years of full-time study or its equivalent of part-time study. The Senatus Academicus may exempt students from this requirement in exceptional circumstances.
11. Applicants may be admitted to Honours subject to conditions prescribed by the Senatus Academicus. The Senatus Academicus may stipulate that an applicant may not take a particular Honours course or courses. The Senatus Academicus may exclude from the Honours programme any student who fails an element of the Honours programme or who fails to accumulate, by award or recognition, at least 360 credit points by the end of programme year 3.

12. Candidates for the Degree of LLB with Honours must have their dissertation topic approved by an appropriate member of the staff of the School of Law. Candidates shall submit their dissertation on the second day of the summer term in the Senior Honours session unless, in exceptional circumstances, the prior permission of the Senatus Academicus has been obtained. Candidates who do not comply with this regulation may be subject to such punitive action as may be decided by the Board of Examiners for the Honours programme.
13. Candidates who have fulfilled the requirements of Regulations 8 to 12 and of the General Degree Regulations shall be entitled to apply for the Degree of LLB with Honours. Any such candidates who have already had the Degree of LLB conferred upon them shall be entitled to receive a certificate stating the class of Honours awarded to them. Any such candidates who have successfully completed the courses detailed in the relevant section of Annex B will be entitled to have their degree certificate endorsed LLB (Honours) with Options in French Language, LLB (Honours) with Options in Gaelic Language, LLB (Honours) with Options in German Language, LLB (Honours) with Options in Spanish Language, LLB (Honours) with Options in Economics, LLB (Honours) with Options in Accountancy, LLB (Honours) with Options in Management Studies, or LLB (Honours) with Options in Music, as appropriate.
