

DIPLOMA IN PROFESSIONAL LEGAL PRACTICE (DPLP)

63M320VX

Duration: 9 months full time study.

Content: Every candidate shall be required to attend and obtain passes in the following core courses:

PD5006 Getting Started at the University of Aberdeen (0 credit points)
LS50DA Conveyancing (15 credit points)
LS50DB Private Client (15 credit points)
LS50DC Litigation (15 credit points)
LS50DE Business Environment and Ethics (15 credit points)

and to attend and obtain a pass in four of the following elective courses:

LS55DA Advanced Civil Litigation (15 credit points)
LS55DB Contracts (15 credit points)
LS55DC Corporate Finance and Acquisition (15 credit points)
LS55DD Dispute Resolution Law (15 credit points)
LS55DE Family Law (15 credit points)
LS55DF Energy Law (15 credit points)
LS55DG Employment Law (15 credit points)
LS55DH Public Administration (15 credit points)
LS55DJ Advanced Criminal Litigation (15 credit points)
LS55DK Negotiation (15 credit points)
LS55DM IT Law (15 credit points)

Assessment: Candidates shall not be awarded a pass in any course unless they have attended the course of instruction and duly performed the work of the course.

Progression: Students will only be able to progress to electives if they have passed all of the core courses.