

PROGRAMME FOR THE 28TH OF MAY at Multi-Faith Chaplaincy 25 High street, AB.

-11.30 am to 9pm : Opening to public, Everybody Welcome ! : first stopover from the Travelling exhibition :

« When silence speaks - Hornstrandar polyphonic memories / When art meets the communities » : exhibition, talks and folk music, from Johanne Verbockhaven Phd research student in Art & Anthropology, organised as part of 'Knowing from the Inside: Anthropology, Art, Architecture and Design' Project, University of Aberdeen,

This exhibition/performance is based on the Phd research conducted in the remote and mountainous Hornstrandir peninsula in the northern-west fjords of Iceland at the edge of the arctic circle, articulated around landscapes & ruins, image-memory & uprooting, traces & absence.

The photographs taken by myself into the peninsula are based on notions of absence, traces, oblivion and silence.

-12.30 am to 2pm : KFI Lunch with Raquel Noronha & Zoy Anastassakis (visitors from Brazil).

-7pm to 8pm : Musical Performance with the Melting_pot band.

Music session gathering for an experimental exploration of soundscapes/landscapes, farming & fishing folks songs, melancholia and the resonance from the Icelandic music into the Scottish, Celtic and UK folk music.

Everybody welcome to bring music instruments and join the performance.
