

Environment and Conflict
The Archbishop Desmond Tutu Centre for War and Peace Studies

Programme July 12, 2021

9:00-10:30 am Panel 1. Welcome and Perspectives on education and environmental peace

Chair: Dr Catalina Montoya

Register in advance for this meeting:

<https://hope.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZ0lcumqrD8oG9MujC8O87UKzP0osOyTEpv7>

Welcome from the Director of the Archbishop Desmond Tutu Centre for War and Peace Studies

21st Century Challenges to Peace: Facing Complexity in a Changing World. Gearoid Millar, PhD Head, Department of Sociology, Senior Lecturer in Peace and Reconciliation, University of Aberdeen

Management Education Contributions to Global Challenges and Expectations. Dr Jan Green, LHU Business School

Surface tensions: a transnational terrain dance project. Dr. Rachel Sweeney, Senior Lecturer, Course Leader in Dance, Faculty Senior Academic Advisor School of Creative and Performing Arts, LHU

10:30-12:00 am Panel 2: Mobilising environmental action

Chair: Dr Gary Anderson

Register in advance for this meeting:

<https://hope.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZUrcOCggDsJHNzSAQIx8ilMkymjV2ayF0Nd>

Mobilising workers on the issue of Climate Change. Clara Paillard, President of the PCS union Culture Group that represents 4,000 museums workers across the country and works for National Museums Liverpool

"Welcome to the Bleak and Desolate North": Opposing fracking at Barton Moss. Martin Porter, environmental activist Greenpeace

How universities can incorporate the new Education for Sustainable Development ESD guidance across curricula & why this needs to happen NOW. Bitsy Pout, second year Environmental Science student at the University of Southampton, specialising in Biodiversity and Conservation

12:30-2:00 am Keynote Addresses

Chair: Dr Catalina Montoya

Register in advance for this meeting:

<https://hope.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZcqdOuqrzWiH9dBc02kciGugxixpPGU84V>

Environment and Conflict
The Archbishop Desmond Tutu Centre for War and Peace Studies

Malcolm Miles, Climate, Culture, and a Revolution of Values

John Volgler, Environment and Security: Nation States, individuals or the Planet?

2:00-3:00 Online Art workshop: Sapling.

Led by Doris Rohr, Senior lecturer in Fine Art, Liverpool Hope University

Register in advance for this meeting:

<https://hope.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZwsf-CqqDkvHtMnVcM6JV4ODJunyoYMXalf>

3:00-4:00 pm Panel 3: Environment and conflict: from roots to reconstruction

Chair: Salman Al-Azami

Register in advance for this meeting:

<https://hope.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZ0ucOurpzgsHdBj1X6t30IUWJfwceR-q6vA>

Herders-Farmers Conflict in Nigeria: An Alternative Perspective. Usman A. Tar, Endowed Professor of Defence and Security Studies Director, Centre for Defence Studies and Documentation, Nigerian Defence Academy, and Samuel Baba Ayegba, Department of Defence and Security Studies, Nigerian Defence Academy

The environmental consequences of post conflict infrastructure reconstruction. Dr. Maheshika Sakalasuriya, Research Associate Humanitarian Sector and the Climate Emergency Report UK MED, Humanitarian and Conflict Response Institute, University of Manchester

Fleeing Civil Wars to the Urban Borders-Legal Issues and Actors Facing Humanitarian, Economic and Social Consequences and Current Challenges. Professor (Dr.Dr.) Rajendra Parsad GUNPUTH, University of Mauritius and Mr Désiré Gaël Henriette-Bolli, PhD Candidate, Open University of Mauritius