The Professor is in...

We are delighted to welcome Professor Karen Kelsky to the University of Aberdeen on 26 April. Karen Kelsky is the Founder of The Professor Is In, which provides advice and consulting services on the academic job search and all elements of the academic and post-academic career. Karen is a former tenured professor and Department Head with 15 years of experience teaching at the University of Oregon and the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

She will be on a UK and European speaking tour in April 2016 which includes the University of Aberdeen, Cambridge, Oxford, Kings College London, London School of Economics, University of Warwick, University of St. Andrews, and University of Edinburgh, Roskilde University in Denmark, and University of Zurich in Switzerland.

She will be hosting 2 workshops on 26 April, the first on academic leadership for women from 10-12 in the David Craig Suite in the Sir Duncan Rice Library followed by a lunchtime seminar on interviewing for an academic job 12.30-1.30 (lunch will be provided).
If you wish to attend one or both event, please sign up for a place through the course booking system

Vitae Leadership Poll

As part of the current theme of Leadership Activities, Vitae is running a short 2-question poll for researchers.

Are you a researcher who has benefited from working with an effective leader? How has the experience impacted you or your career? How well are you led in your current role? Answer Vitae's quick poll by April 4th by clicking here.
