Week visits to Project Search from Ruth and Eden Scott see on pages 4 and 5.
Hi everyone, before the Easter holidays the interns did interview days with Ruth, Eden Scott and some of them went with Kevin, Kelly and Andrew to Martin’s Super Quiz in Stonehaven.

We have now selected our next 12 interns for 2015-16 Project SEARCH.

After the break, we had our 2nd Meet the Interns event. The Interns have started their 3rd internships, 3 of which are external internships at NHS (Health Village and ARI) and Entier.

By Lisa Mant
“David has completed the tasks we have given him accurately and with minimal supervision. He gets on well with the team and has shown a willingness to learn.” Graeme Euington, Supervisor – IT Services

“Duncan carries out all aspects of his job well and fully, his communication is first class and social skills are very good. I wish some of our men were as good!” Alan Stark, Maintenance Chargehand, University of Aberdeen

“Jack is a great addition to the team, he has followed instruction and quickly memorised the system and what is required of him.” Sharon Taylor, Office Manager

“Kieran is a very likeable young man, he likes to keep busy and never afraid of hard work.” Bernie Reid, Porter, University of Aberdeen.

“Michael fitted straight into the team, gets on well with other staff, manages all tasks we give him without support and asks for further tasks when needed.” Richard Massie, Chargehand, UoA.

“Ryan has fantastic IT skills, and completes tasks with great efficiency” Brenda Brown, Senior Information Ass.

“Connor is very willing to learn; he listens to instructions and is very polite to all members of staff.” Ronnie Clark, Mechanical Assistant.

“Craig listens well and takes on much of what is explained to him even when it is more advanced. He has always been very pleasant and appropriate and able to work on his own carrying out tests.” Mike, Electrical Technician.

“George lifts spirits on his arrival and continues to do so all shift long! The porters speak highly of him and he seems to have fitted in well with everyone.” Alan Duncan, Supervisor.

“Jack is very good at performing tasks that require accuracy and attention to detail; he works well to time constraints and deadlines.” Alison Klaase, Information Assistant.
