What people like and admire about me: People say I am Thoughtful, Friendly, Happy and always smiling, Dedicated and Honest

What’s important to me: Being allowed to be myself, being on time for work, getting a job, my family, having clear instructions and playing card games in my spare time

How to support me well at work: Clear instructions, let me have time to think, give one thing at a time because if I am given too much at the same time I get kind of confused and give me suitable tasks
