What people like and admire about me:
People think I'm a good listener, good in a team, a hard worker, honest, happy, a good communicator, funny and artistic

What’s important to me:
My family, friends, my bedroom as it has my stuff like my Xbox 360, TV, DVD’s, Anime figurines and posters and my Manga

How to support me well at work:
I would like things explained to me a few times until I know how and what I'm doing.
I would like someone to help me until I know how to do whatever I’m supposed to do.
When the environment gets a bit too busy or noisy for me, I would like to take a short break away from the place.
