| Work, which is largely and predominately characterised by evidence of the following:
- Outstanding ability and critical thought.
- Evidence of extensive reading / research.
- Superior understanding showing significant signs of originality and an in-depth understanding of the topics covered (in particular in relation to the comprehension and analysis of relevant legal theories and legal argument).
- Use of new information, new methodology or new theory.
- Original insight and power of analysis in which arguments are cogent and well supported in almost all respects or demonstrate creativity or originality.
- Excellent grasp of appropriate critical concepts.
- Excellence in understanding and critical analytical ability.
- Evidence of wide reading and discriminating use of relevant literature sources and work experience where appropriate.
- A firm sense of relevance.
- Illuminating and intelligent use of quotation or other illustrative material.
- Ability to present well-structured and persuasive argument.
- A superior and effective command of English.
- No significant deficiencies within the context of the assessment format.
- Consistently high standard of presentation. | A3 | A3 | First | Distinction | 20 |
| Work, which is largely and predominately characterised by evidence of the following:
- Adept to argue logically and organise answers well.
- Shows a thorough grasp of concepts.
- Good use of examples to illustrate points and justify arguments.
- Evidence of reading and wide appreciation of subject
- Good understanding of critical concepts.
- Ability to distinguish and deploy relevant material.
- Accurate and effective use of quotation or other illustrative material (e.g., well organised use of secondary material).
- Orderly / effective presentation of arguments which are mostly well supported.
- Clear and effective expression.
- Develops and analyses the core issues covered by the assessment while dealing with some advanced aspects of the assessment topic and shows an ability to engage in debate on relevant material.
- Highly competent work demonstrating clear understanding of the issues.
- Some signs of presenting information in a new light or drawing strands together in a new framework. | B2 | B2 | Second | Merit | 15 |
| Work, which is largely and predominately characterised by evidence of the following:
- Repetition of lecture / seminar notes without evidence of further appreciation of subject.
- Lacking illustrative examples and originality.
- Basic / clear level of understanding of the relevant concepts.
- Knowledge of a sufficient number of core materials / ideas to substantiate general statements.
- Appropriate use of quotation or other illustrative material.
- Ability to recognise core issues and to construct a coherent answer which keeps these in view.
- Arguments are well constructed but omit or do not develop sufficiently some significant issues.
- Clear and grammatical style.
- Develops and analyses the core issues covered by the assessment to a limited extent but shows understanding of relevant material.
- Satisfactory presentation. | C2 | C2 | Pass | Lower | 12 |
| Work, which is largely and predominately characterised by evidence of the following:
- Limited ability to argue logically and organise answers.
- Failure to develop or illustrate points.
- Some knowledge of a restricted range of issues related to the assessment suggesting a lack of understanding of some key concepts
- Limited understanding of relevant issues or technical terms.
- Presentation of material which shows only a limited ability to understand and correctly deploy the work of others.
- Identifies and states accurately relevant principles but fails to develop or analyse the core issues covered by the assessment.
- Shows limited understanding of relevant material.
- Arguments are badly constructed or superficial.
- Contains flaws in logic or methodology or both.
- Limited use of relevant literature sources and (where appropriate to the assignment) work experience.
- Weak simplicistic presentation. | D2 | D2 | Pass | Third | 10 |
| Work, which is largely and predominately characterised by evidence of the following:
- Poor / inappropriate / inaccurate presentation.
- Tendency to irrelevance.
- Some attempt at an answer but seriously lacking in content and or ability to organise thoughts
- Little evidence of coherent thinking or organisation
- Inability to identify or state accurately even basic ideas relevant to the core issues covered by the assessment;
- Reproduces in an inappropriate or incorrect manner the work of others;
- Significant errors or misconceptions in respect of a core issue covered by the assessment which indicate a serious misunderstanding of the assessment topic;
- Deficiencies in structure, presentation and formulation of arguments which are sufficiently serious to indicate a serious lack of understanding of the assessment topic.
- Fails to meet the required standard. | E2 | E2 | Fail | Fail | 7 |
| Work, which is largely and predominately characterised by evidence of the following:
- No appreciable evidence of coherent thinking or organisation
- Contains major errors or misconceptions which indicate a fundamental misunderstanding of the assessment topic.
- Deficiencies in structure, presentation and formulation of arguments which are sufficiently serious to indicate a fundamental lack of understanding of the assessment topic.
- Consistently poor presentation. | F2 | F2 | Fail | Fail | 4 |
| Token or no submission. | G2 | G2 | Fail | Fail | 1 |
