

Curriculum Management

The approval process for introducing new, or amending or withdrawing existing courses and programmes, operates via the Curriculum Management System (CMS) the University's single source for all course and programme related data, including course requisites and timetabling information.

Is the proposal to create or withdraw a programme?

Does the proposal impact the Teaching Timetable?

