A warm welcome from all of us in the Department. We are delighted that you will be joining us in September, and we look forward to meeting you at our induction event, which will take place on Thursday, 6th September, from 10 am to noon, in the Divinity Library.

In joining our department, you will find yourself part of a vibrant, friendly, international community. We trust that you will quickly feel at home here, but we recognise that it will take some time to settle in, and that you may need some help along the way. You will find that staff and fellow students will gladly offer informal advice, but it is important that you also attend the formal induction. The event will include:

- An overview of our department and our degree programmes
- A briefing on the policies that will govern your studies and the resources available
