Welcome

Dear PGDE students,

We are delighted to welcome you to the University of Aberdeen as you take up your place on the PGDE Primary Programme. Some of you will know Aberdeen, and others will be exploring it for the first time. Whatever the case, on behalf of the Programme Team, can we wish you an exciting, challenging, and fulfilling year, as you journey towards your teaching qualification and provisional registration with the General Teaching Council for Scotland.

We very much look forward to sharing this year with you.

Alyson Young
Acting PGDE Primary Programme Director

Catholic Teacher's Certificate in Religious Education (CTC)

The Catholic Teacher's Certificate in Religious Education (CTC) is the qualification required for those eligible* and wishing to teach Religious Education in Catholic primary schools or in Catholic secondary schools as a 'generalist' RE teacher. Working in partnership with the Scottish Government and the Bishops' Conference of Scotland, the University of Glasgow is responsible for this award, and it is delighted to offer the qualification in 2022-23 to PGDE students at the University of Aberdeen.

The blended learning course will be taught by University of Glasgow staff over two semesters and will involve face to face teaching on University of Aberdeen campus and online coursework. It will fit with your PGDE timetable and is at no extra cost.

To find out more about the course and to apply please use the following link:

<https://www.gla.ac.uk/schools/education/study/undergraduate/informationforapplicants/catholicteachercertificate/>.

(*More information on eligibility can be found here: <https://sces.org.uk/download/instrument/>)

NB: From the 'PROGRAMME' drop down box, please select the university where you will be completing your programme of study.

If you are interested in applying for this course please do so as soon as possible and, at the latest, by Monday 22nd August 2022.

Library/ICT

A wide range of online information can be accessed to support you with any ICT issues and essential Library skills. All information is available on MyAberdeen.

IT services

Having gone through the process of E-registration and MyCurriculum, you can then access:

- Computing facilities and MyAberdeen

Log in using Computer Username
e.g. t01abp22

- Student Email

Log in using your email address
e.g. any.b.person.22@abdn.ac.uk

Use the same password for both, which you chose as part of e-registration.

Quick links

On the university website: www.abdn.ac.uk Go to Quick Links.

The screenshot shows the University of Aberdeen website's navigation menu. The 'Quick Links' tab is selected, revealing a dark purple dropdown menu with four columns of links:

- Student Resources
 - MyTimetable
 - MyCurriculum
 - MyAberdeen
 - Student Hub
 - Student Email
 - Student Channel
- StaffNet
 - Working Here
 - Management Information Systems
 - Teaching & Learning

 - A to Z

At the bottom left of the dropdown menu, there is a box for 'Infohub Opening Hours' with the following details:

- Mon - Thu : 09:00 - 17:00
- Fri : 10:00 - 17:00
- Sat - Sun : Closed
- Email: infohub@abdn.ac.uk

Here you will find shortcuts to:

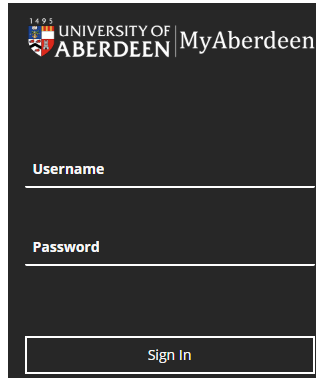

- MyAberdeen
- Student Email
- IT Services

MyAberdeen

MyAberdeen is the Virtual Learning Environment used by the University of Aberdeen. This is where you will find all your course information, materials, resources, messages, announcements and assessment. Once you have access, you will find the PGDE Programme Handbook here.

- a) From Quick links, select MyAberdeen.

At the login page, use your University computer username which you were allocated during e-registration. This is of the form t01abc22 where the abc are your initials.

Use the password that you set up during e-registration.

- b) Once logged in you will see your courses listed.

Student email

You must use and check your University email account regularly as all communication from tutors, course, MyAberdeen and the University is sent to that account.

- a) Login to this from the same Quick Links section.
b) Use the email address you chose during the e-registration process and your password.

The email address will be of a form similar to any.b.person.22@abdn.ac.uk. If you do not know your email address, you will find a note of it in your Student Portal.

The first time you log into student email from the website, you will be required to enter authentication details that can be used should you need to re-set your password at any time.

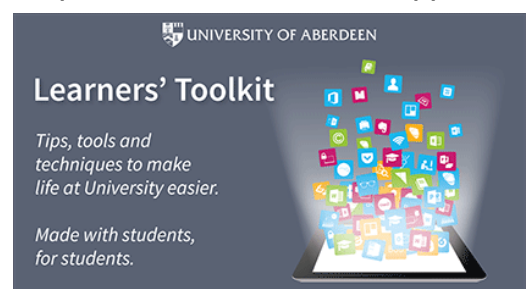

IT Help

When you need help, visit the Service Desk. This is your first point of contact for IT support.

- Login to MyIT Portal at <https://myit.abdn.ac.uk/>
- Email: servicedesk@abdn.ac.uk

Student advice and support

The Student Advice and Support team offer a wide range of impartial and confidential advice and support to students on any issue or matter of concern which they might face throughout their time at University, including those of a personal, emotional or financial nature.

The Student Support Advisers also administer the University's discretionary funds, including the childcare fund.

The team can provide specific information and support for students with disabilities, students with mental health issues, and students who require advice on visas and immigration.

Telephone: 01224 273935

Email: student.support@abdn.ac.uk student.disability@abdn.ac.uk or student.international@abdn.ac.uk

The website has lots of great information which is updated regularly with support service updates, and resources for students to access online: www.abdn.ac.uk/students/support.

Launched in December 2021, the Student Helpline is available 24/7 and specifically designed for periods normal support services are not. This is open to ALL students regardless of their location.

Recommended course reading

Below is a list of books you will find useful during this year of study and beyond. Some of these books will be referred to by your tutors during the course. Your tutors will also provide links to additional sources, which they will ask you to access to support your thinking.

The books have been organised by theme to support you in identifying the readings you might find most useful at different points in the course. Please note that there is no expectation for you to have read each of them in their entirety before joining the course. Initially, choose the ones that interest you the most.

Book bundle purchasing option

PGDE Primary staff have worked with the Blackwell's campus bookshop to share this year's reading list and create a book bundle of 5 key frequently-used titles for the Primary PGDE course, highlighted in yellow in the reading list.

BLACKWELL'S
FOR LEARNING · FOR LIFE

This bundle is specially made just for this course and is discounted to be cheaper than buying the books individually anywhere else online. The bundle price of £75.00 is a saving of £16.97 on the individual books' RRP.

PGDE Primary Full Reading List - <https://tinyurl.com/PGDE2022>.

PGDE Primary Bundle - <https://tinyurl.com/PGDEBUNDLE2022>.

You have 2 different ways to pre-order the bundle or individual books:

If looking to pick up the bundle in person just reserve online for click and collect or by email (aberdeen@blackwell.co.uk). The collection will be available either directly from the shop (available any time over the summer up to the start of term) or at our bookstall at the MacRobert Building after your first lecture on Monday 15 August 2022. The shop will confirm the preferred pickup location after you place your order.

If looking for free UK home delivery, please contact the shop by email (aberdeen@blackwell.co.uk) with a delivery address & daytime telephone number and they will organise payment over the phone by credit/debit card.

This bundle is exclusive to Blackwell's Aberdeen, so please make sure to reserve online from the Aberdeen store so as not to miss out. All books and bundles will be available in-store and at the bookstall at the start of term if not pre-ordered.

If you have any questions at all, please contact the shop by email or phone.
