

UNIVERSITY OF ABERDEEN

TUITION FEES REFUND POLICY 2015/16

University Policy on Reduction of Tuition Fee Liability and Refunds for students who withdraw, suspend or discontinue their studies

The purpose of this document is to provide guidance on when refunds of tuition fees will be made by the University and how they will be calculated. This policy relates to the portion of the tuition fee that is paid directly by the student or by a sponsor. It should be read in conjunction with the undergraduate and postgraduate fee policies.

- 1.1 Any refund of tuition fees and or reduction in tuition fee liability is at the discretion of the University of Aberdeen.
- 1.2 In all cases, any other debt owing to the University will be subtracted from any refund of fees.
- 1.3 Refunds are calculated differently according to the category of student and programme of study. Sections 1.3.1 and 1.3.2 must be read fully in order to confirm the applicable refund. The University will apply the following rules when calculating fee liability for students who are withdrawn from University:

1.3.1 POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMMES

Policy Guidance Notes

- 2.1 In the case of students who have left their programme of study refunds will only be made when the University's student withdrawal procedure has been correctly followed and the student is recorded as withdrawn in the University student records system. Retrospective or backdated withdrawals will not normally be permitted. The date of withdrawal will be taken as the date that the notification of withdrawal is received by the Infohub or Registry.
- 2.2 Where tuition fees are wholly or partially paid by a third party, the refund rules will be superseded by any relevant arrangement agreed by the University, concerning the student and the third party. This includes refunds of US Federal Loans which will be calculated according to the Return to Title IV (R2T4) regulations.
- 2.3 All refunds will only be made to the bank and account holder (or other financial institution) that originally paid the fee. Refunds are not made in cash.
- 2.4 Students who suspend their studies will have their tuition fee liability reassessed according to Section 1.3.

- 2.5 Any English, Welsh or Northern Irish undergraduate electing to take a tuition fee loan and who subsequently withdraw will be charged according to the payment dates determined by SLC as shown above.
- 2.6 Consideration may be given to making refunds to students who have to withdraw due to exceptional mitigating circumstances. The University shall consider each case on merit. Such cases must be submitted in writing to the Assistant Academic Registrar. Cases based on academic and financial difficulties are not normally regarded as acceptable reasons for any refund or reduction in fee liability. Refunds will be made at the discretion of the University.
- 2.7 Complaints about refund decisions or the refund process should be made in accordance with the University's Policy and Procedures on Student Appeals and Complaints.

Payment of refunds

- Please allow 4 weeks from requesting a refund to receiving it.
- All refunds will be calculated in UK Sterling. The University will not refund any shortfalls due to exchange rate fluctuations, or offer compensation for any bank or other charges incurred.
- Where payment of tuition fees was split between more than one payee, any refund due will be made in proportion to the original split
- Cash refunds are not made.
- Documentary evidence of sponsorship is required before any refund of personal contributions towards fees can be considered. This may include copies of award notices from funding bodies or letters from sponsors confirming details of the tuition support to be provided.
- All refunds will be paid back using the original payment method ie if paid by credit card, the refund where possible will be credited back to that card and if paid by bank transfer, it will be refunded back to the same bank account
