Principal’s Prizes for Research and Engagement

Please find below the official list of winners and runners up from this year’s Principal’s Prizes for Research and Engagement.

Outstanding Research

Team Award

Winner
The Marine Biodiscovery Centre, School of Natural & Computing Sciences
  • Professor Marcel Jaspars
  • Dr Rainer Ebel
  • Dr Hai Deng
  • Dr Jioji Tabudravu
  • Dr Wael Houssen
  • Dr Mostafa Rateb

Individuals at Early Stage of Career Development

Winner
Mr Mise Akura, School of Medicine, Medical Sciences & Nutrition

Individuals at Further Stages of Career Development Award

Winner
Professor Alison Avenell, School of Medicine, Medical Sciences & Nutrition

Public Engagement with Research Award
Main prize (for individuals at further stages of career development)

Winner
Professor Marjory Harper (School of Divinity, History and Philosophy)

Runner Up
Dr Amy Irwin (School of Psychology)

Early Career Researcher

Winner
Dr Heidi Gardner (School of Medicine, Medical Sciences and Nutrition)

Runner Up
Miss Josefine Bjorkqvist (School of Medicine, Medical Sciences and Nutrition)

Outstanding Achievement in Biomedical Sciences

Winner
Dr Gordon Fernie (School of Medicine, Medical Sciences and Nutrition)

Outstanding Contribution to Public Engagement

Winner
Professor Jane Geddes, (Chair in History of Art, School of Divinity, History and Philosophy)

Development Trust Award for Philanthropy / Alumni Engagement

Winner
Laura McQueen

Achievement of Impact for Early Career Researchers

Winner
Dr Fiona Rudkin, School of Medicine, Medical Sciences & Nutrition
Success in Engagement with Industry

Winners
Dr Nick Schofield, School of Geosciences
Dr Andrew Starkey, School of Engineering
Professor Pieter Van West, School of Medicine, Medical Sciences & Nutrition
Professor Marian Wiercigroch, School of Engineering