PROGRAMME OVERVIEW
Our Gateway2Medicine (G2M) programme offers young people from a widening access background in Scotland the opportunity to study medicine. Our partnership with North East Scotland College (NESCOL) provides an accessible and supportive route into medicine, enabling applicants to reach their full potential and achieve their dream of becoming a Doctor. All those who successfully complete the one year G2M programme and meet UKCAT and interview standards will be granted a place on the University of Aberdeen MBChB degree programme.

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE
Our G2M programme comprises elements of the University of Aberdeen’s longstanding Certificate in Pre-medical Studies and the HNC/HND in Applied Sciences provided by NESCOL. Courses in Session 1 (August to December) will be delivered by NESCOL at its Aberdeen City Campus. Session 2 (January to May) will be based at the University of Aberdeen and comprises four compulsory courses. The programme also includes a work experience module. NHS Grampian has guaranteed every student on the G2M programme Healthcare Support Worker-level paid employment.
