

“What is GoConqr and why should I use it?”

GoConqr (formerly ExamTime) is a great free web-app that allows you to easily create, save, share, and embed mind maps, quizzes, flashcards, and notes. Plus, the service includes a study planner to help you stay organised and on top of your classes. The perfect all-in-one revision tool:

Mind Maps

Brainstorm, outline learning topics, prepare essays, connect ideas – you can do it all with our Mind Map creator.

Quizzes

Create quizzes in different formats, time your answers and track your progress to fully prepare for your test.

Flashcards

Increase memory with our engaging Flashcards, they're perfect for remembering definitions, dates, formulae, vocabulary and more.

Notes

Capture your ideas and learning material in your own words plus add images & video to get those extra marks using the notes tool.

Slides

Create engaging resources to achieve better learning outcomes. Slides lets you bring it all together to create a powerful learning resource.

Study Planner

Smart students have a plan. Manage your study effectively and monitor your time on each subject to keep focused and boost motivation.

Share

Build learning communities in minutes – create groups, invite friends, discuss, share resources and send private messages.
