

THEOLOGY AND DISABILITY (ONLINE) (SEPTEMBER / JANUARY START) (MTh, PGDip, PGCert)
63UV61E2/ 63UV61VX/ 63UV61VZ

Duration: 36 months part-time

Content: The components of the degree are:

PART TIME ROUTE

This route will run over three years. Students take 4 courses of 30 Credits, not required in any sequence, plus the 60-credit dissertation, DR505X. Courses can be taken as 'stand alone' courses for professional development (CPD).

DR503S Historical Texts in Disability Theology (30 credit points) *

DR505A Contemporary Issues and Developments in Disability Theology (30 credit points) *

DR555B Disability: Reflective Practices in Context (30 credit points) *

DR553R Disability Theology and Scripture (30 credit points) *

* Please note these courses run in alternate years. DR505A and DR553B will run in 2025-26.

In addition, MTh students must complete:

DR505X Research Skills and Dissertation Writing (60 credit points)

Assessment: The taught courses will be assessed by a variety of means that may include poster presentations, journals and essays.

PGDip Assessment: Students must acquire 120 credit points. Assessment is by course work, by written examination, or by a combination of these, as prescribed for each course.

PGCert Assessment: Students must acquire 60 credit points. Assessment is by course work, by written examination, or by a combination of these, as prescribed for each course.