All students and all faculty are welcome. It is expected that PhD and MTh students in Systematic Theology will attend these research seminars as far as possible.

The seven Jüngel discussions will proceed online. To join these sessions requires being added to the Systematic Theology Research Seminar 'Team' on Microsoft Teams. Instructions for accessing the Jüngel texts will be posted to the Teams page at the start of the semester. To be added to the Team, please e-mail Dr Daniel Pedersen (daniel.pedersen@abdn.ac.uk).

Arrangements for the two Guest Lectures will be advertised nearer the time of the events.
